Wole Soyinka was a brilliant and curious child, and his account of his early childhood in the town of Abeokuta in Western Nigeria is enchanting. He writes with his adult voice but maintains the child's perspective and understanding. Wole Soyinka was born July 13, 1934, Abeokuta, Nigeria, a Nigerian playwright and political activist who received the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1986. He sometimes wrote of modern West Africa in a satirical style but his serious intent and his belief in the evils inherent in the exercise of power usually was evident in his work as well. Wole Soyinka was awarded the Anisfield-Wolf award in 1983. His autobiographical works include Ake: The Years of Childhood.
